Discussion on "Disruptive Witness" by Alan Noble.

Financial Update

No financial update since it's not August yet!
We should discern what to do with Outreach funds

Resident Aliens Debrief

- Book club and discussions went well.
- Where do we go from here?
- There may not be a clear application from just reading this book.
- "Disruptive Witness" may be a good segue
- Book may be training us as Christians to ask the right questions
- Discussion group size didn't seem to dwindle and seemed to engage with the material
- We could start printing out explanation of our liturgical elements and handing it out to newcomers
- We can meet up at the end of every church season to discuss our role in the church

Follow Up

Mental Health Forum

- Serena followed up with speaker
 - General overview of mental health from clinical aspect
- What are people at our church looking for? What is the church's role?
- About 50 "interested" on Facebook event

Pool Party/BBQ

- Location set. Sign-up sheet sent
- Ask others to bring cooler for drinks and games

Retreat

- Jon Tran recommended Erin Dufault-Hunter
- She has done research on the intersection of technology and sexuality
- Don has spoken with her at Ekklesia Project

Fall Small Groups

- Leaders met up last night. Discussed what to do for next small group
- Might stick with two groups per week

- PACT groups: Instead of same members in PACT every week, rotate them
- Probably not a good idea to do Acts since we spent some time already
- Revelation: Seven churches
- Andrew for Doodle poll

Bruce's Outreach Initiative

- Meeting next Friday
- Katie, Bruce, Andrew, Michelle, Janet, Don
- Bruce sent out big list of current outreach initiatives in social. Part of meeting is to decide if we can commit to one or two
- Criteria for deciding? Interest level, time commitment, resources
- What will be different from homeless ministry? Why was that not sustainable? Can we partner with other local churches?
- Perhaps it'd be useful to see what other churches are doing rather than looking over 100
- Katie's idea: Professionals helping refugees find professional work

Advent/Christmas

- Can we change the physical look on Sundays to reflect season change?
- We need someone who can visually imagine something noticeable
- Arts/Flowers around sanctuary

Testimonies
