A SONG FOR COMMUNION

How Great is Our God

by Chris Tomlin, Ed Cash, Jesse Reeves

THE LORD'S PRAYER

We join our voices in solidarity with our brothers and sisters who have prayed this prayer throughout space and time.

Our Father in heaven,

Hallowed be your name.

Your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.

Lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from the evil one.

For yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

PARTAKING IN THE BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

SONG OF RESPONSE

Let this song be a response to what God has spoken to you this morning.

Will We Ever Rise (Broken People)

by Ben Fielding, David Gungor, John Arndt

Benediction

A benediction is a "good word." As you go back out into the world, may you receive God's good word of blessing on you.

Let nothing disturb you.

Let nothing frighten you.

All things pass.

God does not change.

Patience achieves everything.

Whoever has God lacks nothing.

God alone suffices.

And now remember this:

You are the body of Christ.

You are the eyes through which Christ's compassion is to look out upon this world,

and yours are the lips through which His love is to speak;

Yours are the hands with which He is to bless others and yours the feet with which He is to go about doing good.

Amen.

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

All Who Are Thirsty

by Brenton Brown, Glenn Robertson

Psalm 1:1-6

Welcome

Today is the sixth Sunday after the Epiphany. The term epiphany comes from the Greek word meaning "to appear" or "to bring to light." If, in the Christmas season, we marvel at the mystery of the Incarnation, during the season of Epiphany, we move into the unfolding revelation of that mystery. In our Gospel passage we have what is commonly known as his Sermon on the Plain. In these verses Jesus begins by pronouncing a set of four blessings and four woes.

The discipline of offering helps loosen our grip on that which has the power to possess us, inviting us into the weekly practice of generosity, gratitude, and simplicity.

Announcements

FOLLOW-UP ENNEAGRAM: SUN, 2/24 AFTER SERVICE DURING LUNCH

Next Sunday we will have a follow-up discussion on the Enneagram (an ancient model of nine interconnected personality types). The goal will be to introduce some spiritual practices we can take up according to our types, to help us as we enter into the Lenten season (which begins on March 6). We will be catering lunch to hold the discussion here at Las Lomas after Sunday service.

2019 RETREAT: 3/22-3/24 (FRI-SUN) @ OAKS CAMP & CONFERENCE CENTER

We will be holding our 2019 church retreat from Mar 22-24. Registration is now open. Early Bird (12/1—2/3): $165. 2/4—3/1: $190.

Our speaker this year will be none other than Jonathan Tran (Associate Professor of Philosophical Theology and George W. Baines Chair of Religion), who has been long-time friend of our community here at Christ Kaleidoscope.

Hearing God's Word

As we come to God's Word, may our hearts be fertile ground to receive what God has to say to us.

PRAYER OF ILLUMINATION

(in unison)

Our Lord and our God,

Now as we hear your Word, fill us with your Spirit.

Soften our hearts that we may delight in your presence.

Sharpen our minds that we may discern your truth.

Shape our wills that we may desire your ways.

Through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Amen.

ALL: Thanks be to God.

Luke 6:17-26 (Read by Amy Zhu)

SILENCE

Take a moment to pause in silence and tend to God's still small voice.

For God alone my soul waits in silence, for my hope is from him. PSALM 62.

Liturgy

Confession

In the hands of grace, confession becomes for us a gift to help realign ourselves with God's good intentions for us.

A PRAYER OF CONFESSION

(in unison)

Most merciful God,

we confess that we have sinned against you

in thought, word, and deed,

by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart;

we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

[PAUSE FOR REFLECTION]

We are truly sorry and we earnestly repent.

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,

have mercy on us and forgive us;

that we may delight in your will,

and walk in your ways,

to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Book of Common Prayer

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

"He himself bore our sins" in his body on the cross,
so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness;
"by his wounds you have been healed."

1 Peter 2:24

ALL: Thanks be to God.

Eucharist

The term Eucharist literally means "grateful." In gathering around the bread and the cup, we celebrate together a meal of thanksgiving.

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

The Lord Jesus, on the night he was betrayed, took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body, which is for you; do this in remembrance of me."

In the same way, after supper he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood; do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me." For whenever you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

1 Corinthians 11.23-26

PRAYER FOR THE WORK OF THE SPIRIT
