A SONG FOR COMMUNION

Holy Communion

by David Gungor, John Arndt

THE LORD'S PRAYER

We join our voices in solidarity with our brothers and sisters who have prayed this prayer throughout space and time.

Our Father in heaven,
Hallowed be your name.
Your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from the evil one.
For yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory,
forever and ever.
Amen.

PARTAKING IN THE BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

SONG OF RESPONSE

Let this song be a response to what God has spoken to you this morning.

Wholly Yours

by David Crowder

Benediction

A benediction is a "good word." As you go back out into the world, may you receive God's good word of blessing on you.

O God the Father, graciously give us
all that we need for body and soul.

O Son of God,
deliver us from sin,
be gracious to us,
and give us your Spirit.

O God, Holy Spirit,
heal, comfort
and strengthen us
against the devil,
and give us endless victory
and resurrection from death.
Amen.

Martin Luther, 1483-1546

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

Come As You Are

by Ben Glover, David Crowder, Matt Maher

Welcome

Today is Trinity Sunday, which marks the first day of Ordinary Time, the liturgical season that follows Pentecost Sunday. On this day, we celebrate the mystery made known to us of the triune nature of God's being. The God we worship as Christians is the one God who eternally exists as three persons - Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. In this "tri-unity" each gives and receives in an endless circle of self-giving love. In our Gospel passage this morning we are reminded that Christian discipleship has something to do with our being baptized into the name of this Trinitarian God. As such, may our lives continue to grow in love and grace that we might more fully witness to the eternal self-giving between Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

Liturgy

SILENCE

Take a moment to pause in silence and tend to God's still small voice.

For God alone my soul waits in silence, for my hope is from him.

PSALM 62.5

Confession

In the hands of grace, confession becomes for us a gift to help realign ourselves with God's good intentions for us.

A PRAYER OF CONFESSION

(in unison)

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved thee with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

[PAUSE FOR REFLECTION]

We are truly sorry and we earnestly repent.
For the sake of thy Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in thy will,
and walk in thy ways,
to the glory of thy Name. Amen.

Book of Common Prayer

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Hear the good news:

This saying is sure and worthy of full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. (1 Tim. 1:15)

He himself bore our sins in his body, on the cross, that we might be dead to sin and alive to all that is good.

By his wounds we are healed. (1 Peter 2:24)

Eucharist

The term Eucharist literally means "grateful." In gathering around the bread and the cup, we celebrate together a meal of thanksgiving.
