A SONG FOR COMMUNION

Prayer of St. Thomas Aquinas

by Martin Reardon

THE LORD'S PRAYER

We join our voices in solidarity with our brothers and sisters who have prayed this prayer throughout space and time.

Our Father in heaven,

Hallowed be your name.

Your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.

Lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from the evil one.

For yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory,
forever and ever.

Amen.

PARTAKING IN THE BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

SONG OF RESPONSE

Let this song be a response to what God has spoken to you this morning.

New Again

by Brooks Ritter, Mike Cospir

Benediction

A benediction is a "good word." As you go back out into the world, may you receive God's good word of blessing on you.

May the Lord Jesus Christ give you a heart to love him,

A will to choose him,

An understanding to know Him,

The strength to follow him.

And may the Spirit enable you to know ever more deeply
the eternal love God has for you.

Amen.

Augustine of Hippo, 354-430

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

Our Great God

by Fernando Ortega, Mac Powell

Welcome

Today we'll start a short series on the topic of race. It is often overlooked, but one of the most significant implications of the gospel has to do with race. In our Gospel passage this morning, Jesus declares himself the good shepherd who has "other sheep that are not of this sheep pen." In the book of Ephesians, the Apostle Paul points us to the fact that Christ "is our peace, who has made the two groups one and has destroyed the barrier, the dividing wall of hostility." At stake in both these proclamations is the issue of race - that both Jews and Gentiles have been brought together as one in Christ, to become a holy temple in the Lord.

O Lord,

You have given us your Word for a light to shine upon our path;
grant us so to meditate on that Word and to follow its teaching,

SERMON

We Have Been Brought Near

Ken Hsu

SILENCE

Take a moment to pause in silence and tend to God's still small voice.

For God alone my soul waits in silence, for my hope is from him.

PSALM 62.5

Confession

In the hands of grace, confession becomes for us a gift to help realign ourselves with God's good intentions for us.

A PRAYER OF CONFESSION

(in unison)

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved thee with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

[PAUSE FOR REFLECTION]

We are truly sorry and we earnestly repent.
For the sake of thy Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in thy will,
and walk in thy ways,
to the glory of thy Name. Amen.

Book of Common Prayer

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Hear the good news:

This saying is sure and worthy of full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. (1 Tim. 1:15)
He himself bore our sins in his body, on the cross, that we might be dead to sin and alive to all that is good.
By his wounds we are healed. (1 Peter 2:24)

Eucharist

The term Eucharist literally means "grateful." In gathering around the bread and the cup, we celebrate together a meal of thanksgiving.
